Aboriginal People

JOB POSTING -Executive Director -

At Rising Above, our mission is to bring healing to our land by educating, equipping and empowering Aboriginal people to address their pain and rise above it. We believe that they can experience life, identity and purpose in Jesus, as Creator intended. Our motto “First Peoples Helping First Peoples” reflects the fact that Rising Above was initiated and is governed by an Aboriginal Board of Directors and our mission is focused on Aboriginal people but we welcome staff from all cultures.

Our dedicated team shares a passion to serve Christ by coming alongside and providing Aboriginal people with healing and wholeness. If you share this passion and want to serve in a Christian Aboriginal lead mission you could be a great fit for our team. Meet our team at risingabove.ca/about-us.

Position Summary:

As Executive Director you will serve as the Chief Executive Officer of Rising Above. Your role contributions can be stated as performance in three areas: your leadership of the organization to accomplish the strategic direction and goals established in collaboration with the Board; ensuring that the organization operates within the boundaries established in Board Policy with respect to human and financial resources; and interfacing with the public in promotion and fundraising.
